recovered on every traffic violation in Delhi had attached any conditions with regard to its user;

if so, the details thereof;

the additional amount collected by Delhi Police on this account, so far, and the use to which it has been put, till date?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI V. RADHIKA SELVI): (a) and (b) The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in W.P. (C) No. 16565/2006-Court on its own motion Vs. Union of India and Ors. & W.P. (Crl.) No. 207/2004-Court on its own motion Vs. State in its order dated 26.3.2007 has directed that "Wherever any driver of any vehicle including a two-wheeler is challaned by the traffic police and/or any other competent authority, he shall be liable to pay costs of Rs. 500/- for each offence committed by him in addition to the composition fee payable in terms of Section 200 of the Motor Vehicles Act or any other enabling provision of law to that effect. Wherever, the challan is tried by the court of com'petent jurisdiction, it shall consider the question of imposing costs depending on the facts of each case and would exercise such discretion in accordance with settled principles of law. For example, for committing the offence of jumping the red light, the offender shall pay compounding fee equivalent to the fine under the section i.e. Rs. 100 and Rs. 500 as costs, thus, totalling to Rs. 600/-". The fine/cost indicated in the judgement of the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi became effecgive from 9th April, 2007.

(c) and (d) No separate data is maintained by Delhi Police for additional amount collected on this account. However, during 2007 and upto 31 st March, 2008, total amount collected as compounding amount and court fine was Rs. 130.20 crore. The amount is deposited in Government account.

Publication/brodcast of false stories of eminent personalities

† 13943. SHRI BALAVANT ALIAS BAL APTE: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

whether publication and broadcasting of incoherent stories about great personalities of India has increased these days;

whether Government is concerned about the propaganda made abroad about Mahatma Gandhi, Jawahar Lal Nehru, Lakshmibai, etc.;

whether these issues are being investigated;

whether any demand has been raised to ban a book on 'Jhansi Ki Rani' by a person of Indian origion in London; and the policy of the Government and the steps taken by Government in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI PRIYARANJAN DASMUNSI): (a) Only one case of an objectionable News item/programme on Mahatma Gandhi, telecast by two news Channels namely Rashtriya Sahara and IBN7, came to the notice of this Ministry. Show Cause Notices were issued to these Channels. The Channels have tendered their apology for the said news-item.

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(b) and (c) As and when information regarding publication and broadcasting of factually incorrect or distorted stories about great Indian personalities and leaders comes to the notice of Ministry of External Affairs and its Missions abroad, immediate action is taken to rectify the situation.

(d) and (e) A request has been received in the Ministry from Shri H.M. AgrawaJ, Senior Journalist, Dainik Swatantra Bharat to ban a book on 'Jhansi Ki Rani' written by a person of Indian origin residing in London. His representation has been forwarded to Ministry of Home Affairs for taking necessary action.

So far as the Electronic Media (TV Channels) is concerned the Government had constituted a Committee for reviewing the Programme and Advertising Codes (Content Code) prescribed under the Cable TV Networks (Regulation) Act, 1995 and Rules framed thereunder, to provide greater specificity in the provisions of existing codes. The Committee has submitted its report to the Government on 05.03.2008 which is available on this Ministry's website www.mib.nic.in under the heading 'Self Regulation Guidelines 2008'.
